Dear Rising 5th Graders and Parents,

As fifth grade teachers of Ascension Catholic School, our goal is to have our students keep up with their reading throughout the summer. In order to accomplish this goal, we are requiring each student to read a minimum of 12 hours over the summer. A minimum of 2 out of these 12 hours needs to be spent reading their choice of non-fiction books or magazines. Students will be given access to the free Scholastic Summer Reading website (scholastic.com/summer) program where they will be able to:

- Log in their minutes spent reading (mandatory)
- Participate in fun activities (optional)
- Take part in weekly challenges (optional)
- Earn digital rewards (optional)

Students are encouraged to read any and all types of books that suit their needs and interests. All genres are encouraged: fiction, mystery/suspense, historical fiction, non-fiction, drama, poetry, sports, animals, biographies, graphic novels, etc.

Along with logging their reading minutes, we are asking each student to keep a small journal with the following information for each book read:

- Title of book
- Name of author
- Write a few complete sentences answering the following: 1.) What did you find interesting about this book? 2.) Tell us to whom you would recommend this book, and why.

We believe that you are your child's most important teacher. By encouraging your child to read this summer, you will make a difference in his /her continued success in fifth grade.

Have a safe and enjoyable summer!

Sincerely in Christ,

Mrs. Parsons and Ms. Gomez
